Mr. Stephen Webb, his wife, and two unmarried more than this—it is the City of Cloveland through some of its dilettanti Statesmen, which is found opposing Wade for being minus the same house—another son, who is married desired "social position" at Washington. Now as one of the plain men of the country portion fixed about forty rods distant. On Tuesday of the 19th Congressional District, I would like evening of last week, the old man came home drank, and commenced abusing his wife and sons. One of the boys started for the residence of a Justice to have his father taken care of .-The father also started for the house of the Juatice, and while trying to gain admission, a Mr. and Mrs. Delano came along and observing the quarrel asked Mrs. Webb to go with them to the house of the married son. She assented but was followed by her intoxicated husband and the sons. Mr. Webb was very violent, several times crowded his wife from the walk, and finally struck Mrs. Webb, stabbing her through the hand and in the breast. The wounded woman ran, and her youngest son, aged 17, knocked his father down and threw himself upon him to hold him. The ather son immediately went to the assistance of his brother, and be tween the two the old man was severely handled. In the melec he was stabled in the breast four times, and soon after died. Mrs. Webb is in a critical condition, the wound in her breast having penetrated a lung. Jesse and Sanford O. Webb have been arrested and committed to prison for the murder of their
